PROTECTION OF PERSONAL INFORMATION (POPI) POLICY

IMPORTANT NOTICE: USE OF THIS POLICY IS LIMITED TO AUTHORISED USERS ONLY AND UNDER NO CIRCUMSTANCES SHALL IT SHOWN OR FORWARDED TO UNAUTHORISED PERSONS BY THE INTENDED RECIPIENT OR ANY OTHER PERSONS.

POPIA – PROTECTION OF PERSONAL INFORMATION ACT

1. INTRODUCTION

The Protection of Personal Information Act, 4 of 2013 (“POPIA”) provides for protection principles that Private Client Holdings (Pty) Ltd and its subsidiaries (herein after referred to as PCH) must comply with, to protect the Personal Information of all Data Subjects. Should a person require access to these Personal Information, then access is allowed in terms of the Promotion of Access to Information Act, 2 of 2000 (“PAIA”).

PAIA gives effect to section 32 of the Constitution, that provides for access to these Personal Information if a person wants to exercise a right or to protect a right, subject to the procedural requirements laid down by PAIA.

Section 10 of POPIA provides that Private Client Holdings must implement a Manual that must comply with section 14 and 51 of PAIA that should be made available to persons who want to access Private Client Holdings and its subsidiaries Personal Information.

2. PURPOSE

2.1. This purpose of the Policy is to:

- provide details on records and information of Private Client Holdings and its subsidiaries that are available and accessible once the requirements for access have been met; and
- sets out the procedures to be followed by a person that wants access to the Personal Information that are subject to protection and non-disclosure in terms of POPIA, if such person wants to exercise or to protect a right.

2.2. The Policy is available for inspection at the Private Client Holdings offices at no cost and also on the website www.privateclient.co.za.

3. AVAILABLE INFORMATION

The information provided below is regarded as available information, however currently no notice has been published in terms of section 52(2) on the categories of records that will automatically be available without following the required processes as provided for in terms of this POPIA Policy.

Please note that the inclusion of any subject or category of records in this POPIA Policy does not mean that information or records falling within those subjects and/or categories will automatically be made available. Certain grounds of refusal may apply to a request for such record.

5. Personal Information protection Principles for Responsible Parties

PCH has comprehensive data protection policies and procedures in place to comply with the principles of POPIA and ensure that the best efforts are employed to ensure the protection of Personal Information. PCH implemented the required controls and employs up to date technology to ensure the protection, confidentiality, integrity and availability of the Personal Information that it processes.

5.1 Accountability:

The Responsible Party must ensure compliance. The Responsible Party is required to audit the processes used to collect, record, store, disseminate and destroy personal information: in particular, ensure the integrity and safekeeping of personal information in your possession or under your control. The Responsible Party must take steps to prevent the information being lost or damaged, or unlawfully accessed.

5.2 Purpose Specification:

The Responsible Party must define the purpose of the information gathering and processing: personal information must be collected for a specific, explicitly defined and lawful purpose that is related to a function or activity of PCH concerned.

5.3 Processing Limitation:

The Responsible Party must ensure processing is lawful and:

- done in a reasonable manner that does not infringe the privacy of the Data Subject.
- adequate, relevant and not excessive given the purpose.
- must have obtained consent or it must be necessary. If consent obtained then it must be voluntary, specific and informed.

5.4 Take steps to notify the Data Subject:

The individual whose information is being processed has the right to know this is being done and why. The Data Subject must be informed about:

- the name and address of PCH, who is processing their information,
- he or she must be informed as to whether the provision of the information is voluntary or mandatory.

5.5 Further Processing limitation:

- Assess whether further processing is permitted, one must ask the following questions:
 - Is there a valid relationship between the purposes?
 - What is the nature of information?
 - What are the consequences for data subject?
 - The manner in which information was collected?
 - Are there any contractual rights between the parties?
- Review the rationale for any further processing, asking the following:
 - If information is received via a third party for further processing, this further processing must be compatible with the purpose for which the data was initially collected.

5.6 Information quality:

- The Responsible Party must take reasonably practicable steps to ensure that the information is complete, accurate, not misleading; and updated where necessary.
- The Responsible Party must notify the Information Regulator once POPIA is enacted and register itself with the Information Regulator.
- The Responsible Party must take reasonable steps to notify the Data Subject of:
 - Information being collected
 - Purpose for which information is collected
 - Whether the supply of information is voluntary or mandatory
 - The consequences of failure to provide information
 - Any particular law that applies

5.7 Accommodating Data Subject requests:

POPIA allows for Data Subjects to make certain requests, free of charge, to organisations that holds their Personal Information. An example is where the Data Subject has the right to know the identity of all third parties that have had access to their information. A Data Subject may also ask for a record of the Personal Information concerned.

5.8 Security:

- The Responsible Party is required to secure the integrity of personal information by taking appropriate, reasonable technical and organisational measures to prevent:
 - Loss, damage or unauthorised access
 - Unlawful access to or processing of personal information
- The Responsible Party must take all reasonable measures to:
 - Identify all reasonably foreseeable internal and external risks
 - Establish and maintain appropriate safeguards against the risks
 - Regularly verify that the safeguards are adequately implemented
 - Ensure the safeguards are continually updated in response to new risks or deficiencies in previously implemented safeguards
- The Responsible Party must oversee an Operator who processes data on his/her behalf. The Responsible Party must be aware of the following:
 - The Operator must treat information confidentially
 - The Responsible Party must ensure that the operator establishes and maintains appropriate security safeguards
 - ALL processing by an operator must be governed by a written contract
 - In the event of security breaches, the Responsible Party must notify the Regulator and the data subject

5.9 Retain records for required periods:

- Personal information must be destroyed, deleted or 'de-identified' as soon as the purpose for collecting the information has been achieved.
- However, a record of the information must be retained if an organisation has used it to make a decision about the data subject. The record must be kept for a period long enough for the data subject to request access to it.
- This requirement is subject to other legislation e.g. FAIS and FICA, which requires that records are kept for a period of 5 years from the date the business relationship has ended.

5.10 Cross Border Data Transfer:

- There are restrictions on the sending of personal information out of South Africa as well as on the transfer of personal information back into South Africa.
- The applicable restrictions will depend on the laws of the country to whom the data is transferred or from where the data is returned, as the case may be.
- The Responsible Party must assess the applicable laws and institute a written protocol to cover these requirements.

6. Roles and Responsibilities of the Operator

6.1 Duties of an Operator:

All Information processed by an operator must be treated in the following manner:

- The Responsible party must be aware of the Operators processing.
- The Operator must treat information confidentially.
- The Responsible party must ensure that the Operator establishes and maintains appropriate security safeguards.
- In the event of security breaches, the Operator via the Responsible party must notify the Regulator and the data subject.
- The processing by an operator must be governed by a written contract between the Responsible party and the Operator.

6.2 Contents of the Contract:

The Contract between Operator and Responsible Party must detail at least the following:

- the legitimate grounds for collecting and using personal data collected,
- the lawful purpose for which data are being collected,
- the limit of processing and prohibiting of further processing,
- the extent of information that is required to prevent any excessive information collection,
- the information retention periods and requirements applicable together with destruction processes and procedures,
- The right of individuals to request such information and query the use thereof,
- The security measures required to prevent the unauthorised or unlawful processing of personal data or access to personal data, including accidental loss or destruction or damage to personal data.

7. DEALING WITH SPECIAL PERSONAL INFORMATION

Note: If an objection is received from a Data Subject to process the Special Information, then this information may not be supplied to 3rd parties without the Data Subject's consent.

7.1 Religious or Philosophical Beliefs processing may take place by spiritual or religious organisations & institutions, provided that the information concerns data subjects belonging to such organisations; if it is necessary to achieve their aims and principles; or to protect the spiritual welfare of the data subjects.

7.2 Race processing may be carried out to Identify data subjects when this is essential and to comply with laws or measures designed to protect or advance persons disadvantaged by unfair discrimination

7.3 Trade Union Membership processing may take place by a trade union to which the data subject belongs, or the trade union federation to which the trade union belongs, if the processing is necessary to achieve the aims of the trade union/trade union federation.

7.4 Political Persuasion processing may take place by an institution founded on political principles if such processing is necessary to achieve the aims or principles of the institution.

7.5 Health or Sexual Life processing must be confidential and may take place by:

- Medical practitioners, healthcare institutions
- Insurance companies, medical aid scheme providers
- Schools
- Institutions of probation, child protection or guardianship
- Pension funds and employers if processing is necessary for:
 - Implementation of laws/pension regulations
 - Re-integration/support for workers or persons entitled to benefit in connection with sickness/work incapacity

7.6 Criminal behaviour processing may take place by:

- Bodies charged by law with applying criminal law
- Responsible parties who have obtained the information in accordance with the law
- Responsible parties who process the information for their own lawful purposes to assess an application by a data subject in order to take a decision about or provide a service to that data subject to protect their legitimate interests in relation to criminal offences.

7.7 General Exemptions

The Regulator may authorise processing of any information, which will not be in breach of POPIA, if the public interest includes:

- the legitimate interests of State security
- the prevention, detection and prosecution of offences
- important economic and financial interests of the State or a public body
- historical, statistical or research activity.

8. DIRECT MARKETING BY MEANS OF UNSOLICITED ELECTRONIC COMMUNICATIONS

- Direct marketing is prohibited unless you have consent, or the target is already a customer.
- You may only approach a person for consent once and if they have not previously withheld such consent.
- You may only use the information for the purpose it was obtained, for a customer.
- Any communication for the purpose of direct marketing must contain:
 - Details of the identity of the sender,
 - The address or other contact details to which the recipient may send a request to opt-out

PAIA – PROMOTION OF ACCESS TO INFORMATION ACT (Refer to our website for access to our PAIA manual)

9. PROCEDURES TO FOLLOW TO ACCESS INFORMATION

9.1. REQUESTER

9.1.1. Personal Requester:

A Personal Requester is a requester who is seeking access to a record containing Personal Information about the Requester itself. Access will be granted by PCH subject to applicable legislation.

9.1.2. Other Requester:

If a person other than the Personal Requester is seeking access to a record containing Personal Information, then PCH is not obliged to grant access to such record, unless such person fulfils the requirements for access as provided for in terms of PAIA.

9.2. FEES PAYABLE

The applicable fees are prescribed in terms of the Regulations promulgated under PAIA:

- 9.2.1. Request fee: This does not apply if the request is for personal records of the person requesting – in this instance no fee is payable. If the requested information is not freely available then a then a non-refundable fee is payable upon submission of any request for access to any record (as prescribed by the Dept of Justice and Constitutional Development) (Requester to contact PCH for fee)

Access fee: An access fee is payable prior to being granted access to the records in the form required. These fees are prescribed in Part III of Annexure A as defined in Government Gazette Notice No. 187, Regulation 11.

9.3. REQUEST PROCEDURES

- Access to records with Personal Information is subject to the procedural requirements contained in PAIA.
- A Requester must complete the prescribed form enclosed herewith in Appendix 1 and payment of the required fee (only if it is an Other Requester) must be made.
- The completed and signed Appendix 1 form together with proof of payment must either posted, submitted per hand or be emailed to the Information Officer at the email address stated above.
- If an individual is unable to complete the prescribed form because of illiteracy or disability, such a person may make the request orally to the Information Officer.
- If a request is made on behalf of another person, the Requester must then submit proof of the capacity in which the Requester is making the request on behalf of the other person to the satisfaction of the Information Officer.
- All required information must be provided on the Appendix 1 form and the information must be true complete and correct with enough particularity to enable the Information Officer to identify:
 - the Requester's identity;
 - contact details of the Requester;
 - the requested record/s, and
 - the form of access required by the Requester.

- A Requester may only request access to a record in order to exercise or protect a right and must clearly state what the nature of the right is so to be exercised or protected. The requester is further required to provide an explanation of why the requested record is required for the exercise or protection of that right.
- PCH will process a request to access a record within 30 (thirty) days of receipt of the completed Appendix 1 form together with proof of payment, if applicable, unless the Requestor has stated exceptional reasons and circumstances together with proof, if applicable, that would satisfy the Information Officer that the time period not be complied with.
- PCH shall inform the Requester in writing whether access has been granted or denied together with reasons thereof.
- If the Requester requires access to the records in another manner, the Requester must state the manner and the particulars so required.

9.4. GROUNDS FOR REFUSAL

PAIA provides several grounds on which a request for access to information must be refused and a complete list of the grounds for refusal is available in Chapter 4 of PAIA.

These grounds mainly concern instances that may include where:

- the privacy and interests of other individuals are protected;
- such records are already otherwise publicly available;
- public interests are not served;
- the mandatory protection of commercial information of a third party;
- the mandatory protection of certain confidential information of a third party.
